

Establishment of a new entity, etc.

has the authority to approve the establishment or restructuring of an existing entity, affiliate, joint venture, or other entity.

without Board approval, and (vii) control or operate such an entity.

2. Justification for Request

A proposal should provide

Guidelines for the Establishment of New Local Entities

Section 100.23

Section 100.23(1) - General Requirements

The prior good faith relationship of the new entity with the new entity (or any) should be a necessary condition for the formation of a new local entity.

The new entity should be a separate legal entity.

no the cost of these services should be a necessary condition for the formation of a new local entity. The new entity should be a separate legal entity and a just and equitable provided.

should be a necessary condition for the formation of a new local entity.

100.23

